

Supporting information

The Cyanotype Process and its Potential in Chemistry Education

Alexander Kmeť *, Anna Drozdíková, Soňa Nagyová, Peter Ikhardt

Faculty of Natural Sciences, Comenius University in Bratislava, Department of Didactics in Science, Psychology and Pedagogy, Ilkovicova 6, Bratislava, Slovakia 84215

* kmet45@uniba.sk

Questionnaire

You are in the stage of your life when you learn a lot of new information about yourself, others, and the world around us. Below, you can see a couple of statements about your experiences or attitudes and your task is to answer depending on how strongly this statement is true for you. If you agree with the statement, choose “YES”, if you find it rather true than untrue, pick “yes”. If you consider it rather untrue than true, pick “no” and if you disagree with the statement, pick “NO”. Your answers are anonymous and will only be used in our research, so please, be sincere. Thank you for your help.

Your unique code:

č.	Statement	YES	yes	no	NO
1	I love taking pictures of nice things.
2	I enjoy solving puzzles and brain teasers.
3	I enjoy looking on visually pleasing pictures or photographs.
4	The experiments we perform at school intrigue me.
5	I think that I am talented in arts.
6	When I see an interesting experiment on the internet (TikTok, Pinterest, Instagram...) I am tempted to try it.
7	I have a favourite visual artist (painter, sculptor, photographer, ...)
8	I enjoy learning new stuff during biology and chemistry lessons.
9	I sometimes search for visual art on the internet.
10	I think we should learn more concepts through experiments in school.
11	I love to visit museums, galleries, and exhibitions.
12	I attend science-related extracurricular activities, or I would if I had a chance to.
13	I like to share the things I have created (art, food, ...)
14	I enjoy hand-on activities during science lessons.
15	I love that I can express myself via art.
16	I love to read books about science, or search for new information about science on the internet.
17	I attend art-related extracurricular activities, or I would if I had a chance to.
18	I enjoy biology and chemistry more than other subjects.
19	When I see a new art technique on the internet (TikTok, Pinterest, Instagram...) I am tempted to try it.
20	I enjoy walks in the nature.				